Senator Goebel Dies.

After battling bravely four days for life, Hon. Wm. Goebel died Saturday evening at 6:45 at his room in the Capital Hotel. His brother, Arthur Goebel, and his sister, Mrs. Brunnecker, were with him when the end came, but his brother, Justus Goebel, who came from Arizona, arrived about an hour after Mr. Goebel died.

The news of Mr. Goebel's death was a shock to the people, although his death was not unexpected, the bulletins having announced a change for the worse in his condition. Every good citizen in Kentucky regrets the death of this brave man, who was a successful statesman, leader and lawyer, and thousands mourn his death.

Senator Goebel was again sworn in as Governor on Friday by Samuel Shackelford, Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

Hon. J. C. W. Beckham was sworn in Saturday night as Governor and immediately issued orders appointing Gen. J. B. Castleman Adjutant General, and ordering the State Guards to disperse and return to their homes.

A death mask was taken Sunday afternoon by C. J. Barnhorn, a Cincinnati sculptor, and a bust of the dead statesman will be made.

County Attorney Finn, of Franklin has offered a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension and conviction of all persons who advised, planned or had anything to do with the assassination of Mr. Goebel.

One hundred Versailles citizens have subscribed one dollar each to be used for the arrest and conviction of the assassin.

The arrangements for the funeral have been completed. Last night the body and its escort were taken by special train to Covington, where from 8:30 a. m. to 10 p. m. to-day it will lie in state in Odd Fellows' Hall. To-morrow the funeral train will return to Frankfort, and on Thursday the interment will take place in the historic cemetery at Frankfort.

The pall-bearers at Frankfort will be as follows:

Jack Chinn, Charles C. McChord, Ed. Fennell, James M. Richardson, Henry George, Eph. Lillard, Willard Mitchell, Charles M. Lewis, John L. Gray, John K. Hendrick, John Fulton, Urey Woodson, Joe Blackburn, Jr., Allie W. Young, R. B. Franklin and Percy Haley.

The honorary pall-bearers: J. C. S. Blackburn, Gen. Joseph H. Lewis, Judge W. S. Pryor, the Hon. J. B. McCreary, the Hon. Phil B. Thompson, the Hon. James H. Mulligan, Louis Descognets, Samuel J. Shackelford, Joe L. Rhinock, Joe W. Pugh, Zach Phelps, W. B. Heldeman, Charles B. Poyntz, and Morton K. Yonts.

The Legislative Situation.

Telegrams yesterday from London, Ky., said that Republican legislators were arriving there to meet in legislative session to-day. The Senate and House met in session yesterday at the Capital Hotel but neither had a quorum.

Mr. Orr's Bill.

Hon. Emmett Orr, of Owen county, has introduced a bill in the Legislature, proposing to re-enact and amend the present law providing penalties for the carrying of concealed deadly weapons by making the person convicted of such offense ineligible thereafter of holding any office within the gift of the people of the commonwealth. The bill was very properly referred by Speaker Trimble to the Committee on Public Morals.

Judge Tarvin said in a speech yesterday at Covington that "the death of Wm. Goebel was not brought about by members of his opposing party." This statement was printed last night in the Times-Star.

THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

The theatrical success of the present season has been Klaw & Erlanger's magnificent spectacle "Ben Hur." The average weekly receipts are $18,000, the largest at regular prices in any country. Orders by mail for seats to be held weeks in advance, average $500 per day. There are 350 people in the production.

Ada Rahan will begin a ten-weeks' tour on March 12th at Baltimore, supported by the Duly company in "School for Scandal," "Taming of the Shrew," "A Yeu Like It," "Subtleties of Jealousy," and "The Country Girl."
